MORE RECIPROCITY.

United States and Germany Involved.

ARRANGEMENTS ALL COMPLETE.

The True Letter of the Law Cannot Be Enforced Until January 1, 1892—A Startling Announcement of Interest to Importers and Those Receiving Goods from Foreign Countries.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The proposed commercial treaty between the United States and Germany is as follows: The negotiations have been completed, but under the law they can not go into effect until Jan. 1, 1892. The proviso under which President Harrison has been acting is contained in the tariff act of 1890, Section B schedule N, with a view to securing reciprocal trade with countries producing the articles named therein and for this purpose, on and after the 1st day of January, 1892, whenever and so often as the president shall be satisfied that the government of any country producing and exporting sugars, molasses, coffee, tea, and hides, raw and cured, or any of such articles, imposes duties and other exactions upon the agricultural or other products of the United States which in view of free introduction of such sugars, etc., into the United States he may deem to be unequal or unreasonable, he shall have the power and it shall be his duty to suspend, by proclamation to that effect, the provisions of this act relating to the free introduction of such sugar, etc., the production of such country, for such time as he shall deem just, and in such case and during such suspension duties shall be levied, collected and paid upon sugar, etc., the product or exported from such designated country as follows:

All sugar not above No. 13 Dutch standard, all tank bottoms, syrups of cane juice or beet juice, molade, testing by the polariscope not above 75 degrees, seven-tenths of one cent per pound, and for every additional degree, or fraction of a degree, two and one-tenth of a cent per pound additional; all sugars above No. 13 Dutch standard in color shall be classified by the Dutch standard of color, and pay duty as follows, viz: All sugar above No. 13 and not above No. 16 Dutch standard of color, one and three-eighths cents per pound; all sugar above No. 16 and not above No. 20 Dutch standard, two cents per pound.

Under this section the president, about Jan. 1, can impose the duty on German beet sugar, which finds an extensive market here. Germany has been especially anxious to make a treaty, since one has been made with Spain, to allow Cuban sugars and other products to come in. Up to Jan. 1 the United States can do nothing in the matter, but Germany at once saw its advantage in making a treaty now, so that it can go into effect on the first of the year. Count Von Mumm began negotiations with the state department, and through Secretary Rusk and General J. M. Foster, acting for the state department, the treaty has been brought to a successful completion. It was signed last month at Saratoga, when General Foster and Count Von Mumm paid an unexpected and hurried visit to that place when President Harrison was there as the guest of Mr. Arkell. The papers at that time mixed General Foster up with Secretary Foster and made the visit appear as one to consult on bonds. Your correspondent at that time corrected the error in these dispatches and stated that General Foster had gone on reciprocity business.

BLUE SUNDAY IN BALTIMORE.

The Grand Jury Resurrects Old Laws and Enforces Them.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13.—Sunday was a blue Sunday for the proprietors of cigar stores and ice cream dealers, druggists and candy shopkeepers. The old Sabbath laws resurrected last week by General John S. Berry, foreman of the new grand jury, were by orders of that body rigidly enforced by the police to the great inconvenience of the public. Ice cream dealers and butchers were not even permitted to serve orders given them and paid for Saturday and the only food articles allowed to be sold were milk and ice. The police commissioners declined to enforce the law in the sale of newspapers, and the Sunday papers were sold at the news stands as usual. To test the law, however, a firm of news dealers who largely handle Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia papers were notified that they would be summoned to appear before the grand jury.

Work of Incendiaries.

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 13.—Incendiaries have cleaned out Muncie's ice-houses except the artificial plant. On Saturday Franklin Brothers' large house burned; loss $2,000. Yesterday noon the fire department put out a fire that was burning John Mason's ice-house, but this morning at 3 o'clock the large structure, valued at $1,800, was destroyed.

Child Burned to Death.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Fernandez, a Mexican woman, left her three youngest children in charge of her daughter Mercy, aged ten. Mercy locked them in a room and went to play. The children knocked over a lamp and set fire to the room. Two were rescued but the youngest, Grace, was burned to death.

Wholesale Indictments.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13.—The police yesterday handed to the grand jury the names of 176 persons who Sunday were guilty of offenses against the Sabbath laws. About one-half are charged with working on Sunday, while the others are accused of selling goods.

THE BEST SPRING.

Compressed Air Will Run the Street Cars of Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 13.—Two months ago the Judson Pneumatic Street Railway company, of Washington, and Pullman, Ill., through L. H. Earle, its agent, proposed to establish a street railway system in this city and operate it with compressed air, on the storage plan, in return for deeds to real estate in this city and county aggregating a $250,000 appraised value.

The Judson company furthermore agreed that work should begin in four months after the deeds were delivered, and that within a certain time ten separate and distinct manufacturing enterprises should be established here, each to employ no less than twenty-five men. The company also bound itself to build a compressed air power house and to supply power for two years free to the ten factories. Of the quarter million needed $240,000 worth of real estate has been subscribed, and by next Wednesday the remaining $10,000 will be raised and the proposition formally accepted. The state and surrounding country are interested in the novel plan of running the mills and factories in this city with compressed air. All experiments have been highly successful.

Disastrous Explosion.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—Park Brothers' Black Diamond steel works at Thirtieth and Smallman streets was the scene of a terrific explosion at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The large "triple" valve used to inject steam from the main boiler or reservoir into fifty-four smaller boilers located in different parts of the works exploded by reason of the presence of condensed steam. Huge pieces of boiler plate and debris were scattered in all directions. F. C. Ebling, an employee, was fatally crushed. Several other employees were badly hurt and were removed to the West Pennsylvania hospital. Sixteen hundred men will be thrown out of employment until necessary repairs are made.

Willing to Help Her Reform.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 13.—Zula Evans was fined yesterday on a charge of intoxication. After the fine had been assessed Judge Norton learned that the girl came here from a not-far distant village, and when she attempted to reform was laughed and jeered at by her lover. Then she determined to kill herself, and purchased carbolic acid for that purpose. The whisky she had taken, she explained, was to give her "courage" to do the act. The court at once remitted the fine, and let Police Matron Buchanan take charge of her. "If she wants to do right," remarked the judge, "I do not think the law should stand in the way and swerve her from her purpose."

Hunters Arrested.

BROWNSBURG, Ind., Oct. 13.—On the Sabbath for some time the farmers of this section have been bothered with hunters from Indianapolis, and last Sunday they organized, and with the aid of Town Marshal Thompson, arrested seven in an express wagon, with guns, hunting paraphernalia and game. The hunters tried to bluff Marshal Thompson, but at the point of his gun he escorted them to Brownsburg. On their way to town two of the hunters escaped. In Squire Tyler's court James Kelly, William Carson, Pat Morrissey and David Holmes, who pleaded guilty, were fined, with costs aggregating $18. One of the party was acquitted.

Farmer's Daughter Suicides.

MCCONNELLSVILLE, O., Oct. 13.—A horrible suicide was committed at Deerfield township, this county, yesterday. Miss Lizzie Massey, aged thirty-five, the daughter of a prominent farmer, suicided by placing the barrel of a shotgun in her mouth and pulling the trigger with a stick prepared by notching the end to fit the trigger. The whole top of her head was shot off. The deed was committed while the rest of the family, with the exception of her father, were at church. She was at one time in the Athens asylum.

Daylight Robbery.

LIMA, O., Oct. 13.—A very clever and bold daylight robbery was perpetrated here about 1 o'clock yesterday. The lumber office of L. Reichelderfer & Company, situated on East High street, near the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton track, was entered by burglars while the employees were at dinner, and the safe rifled of its contents. The strong box containing $300 in cash was secured and carried off. When the bookkeeper went to dinner he left the safe unlocked, but locked the outside door of the office.

Waiting for the Committees.

GALESBURG, Ill., Oct. 13.—The Brotherhood of Railway trainmen's convention adjourned yesterday until Wednesday, to give the committees time in which to prepare reports. Grand Chief Conductor Clark, of the Order of Railway Conductors, is here, conferring with the grand officers in reference to the future relations of the two organizations.

Suicide With a Pocketknife.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Oct. 13.—Martin Peterson, of Woodville, this county, committed suicide last night by cutting his throat with a pocketknife. At the time of the commission of the deed he was under the influence of liquor. He was an industrious and well-to-do farmer.

Heavy Land Deal.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 13.—The heaviest land deal on record in the gas belt has been consummated by the sale of 363 acres near Anderson by P. Mather, of this city, to the Anderson Land and Gas company; consideration, $180,000.

A Sweet Cargo.

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—The British steamer Bellagio, which arrived Sunday, brought 11,000,000 pounds of Java sugar. It is stated that this is the largest cargo of sugar ever landed at this port.

ROUGH WEATHER AT SEA.

The Umbria's Last Voyage the Worst She Ever Experienced.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The special correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle, Mr. Alfred Kinnear, gives the following account of the extraordinary experiences of the Umbria upon her last voyage:

Five hours after passing Fastnet light we struck a first-class gale which, by noon on Monday, had attained hurricane force; the wind velocity being from forty-five to fifty miles. On Tuesday, the gale having veered to north-west, blew with greater vehemence, and during the night the ship rolled heavily in the terrific sea, but about 5 o'clock on Wednesday morning we steamed into fine weather, and passengers were able to go on deck for the first time since Sunday evening.

The glass, however, fell all that day, and about 6 o'clock we entered another storm center through a ridge of hurricane squalls and were speedily in the thick of it all again. At 10 o'clock, wind and sea thundering upon the ship, a "pin" in the engine room was discovered to be loose, and the machinery was stopped; this incident being vaguely described by the engineer in reply to an anxious passenger "as only a bug in the snifter." The storm increased, the Umbria lying at the mercy of the waves, and rolling with a dull head-aching stolidity, but in four hours we were heartily glad to be able to resume our dramatically chequered voyage.

During the whole of Thursday it continued to blow with severity from the northwest, the ocean resembling so much mountain scenery of rolling hills, precipitous crags and yawning chasms crested with snow, and described by one passenger as a "finer sight than Niagara." In the afternoon we passed a schooner laboring under storm canvas and apparently waiting for each moment to be her last. But she seemed snug and to be skillfully handled, albeit she made no signal to us whatever.

A respite in the night was followed in the morning, it being now Friday, by a smart southwester accompanied by rain. Throughout we shipped immense quantities of water, but beyond a port in the saloon being stove in and one of the davits sprung, the casualties have been almost paradoxically few in number, the ship behaving admirably in most trying circumstances.

Great Suffering on Board.

Unfortunately the passengers suffered acutely, notwithstanding the unremitting effort made for their comfort by the purser, Mr. Fields, and the steward, Mr. Bond, and by those acting under the direction of those gentlemen.

Two male saloon passengers were somewhat seriously injured by falling, their injuries necessitating surgical attention.

Mrs. Moorman, on her way home to Lowell, Mass., accompanied by her son, died on Wednesday from apoplexy. The unfortunate lady received every attention from the ship's surgeon, who exhausted his skill in her behalf. The body was embalmed and housed during the remainder of the passage in one of the lifeboats. The voyage has proven the worst experienced by the Umbria for many months, and has strikingly illustrated the grim resources of the Atlantic.

The La Bretagne.

The French steamship La Bretagne also met the gale on the 4th. Throughout the time which lasted until the 8th, the sea was very rough and though the steamer labored very heavily, comparatively few seas washed aboard.

Captain Collier, of the La Bretagne, reports that some fishing vessel capsized in the storm and that her crew took to the boats and perished.

TYPE-SETTING CONTEST.

What Has Been Done at the Meeting of the American Newspaper Association.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The type-setting machine contest, under the auspices of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, began in the Chicago Evening Post building Tuesday morning. The machines in competition, the Mergenthaler Linotype, the Rogers' Typograph, the McMillan type-setting machine and the St. John Typo-Bar, are undergoing a rigid test as to their endurance, speed and availability for daily newspaper use. They are being operated eight hours a day, and careful watch is kept of the work of each. Copy of every description that a printer is called upon to set up—manuscript, reprint and telegraph flimsy—is being given to the machines. Their product is carefully read by proof-readers, and the time taken for correction, repairs and stoppages of all kinds is charged up against each machine and deducted from its time.

Composing room foreman Frank B. Moore, of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, William Quinn, of the Boston Herald, E. H. Perkins, of the Indianapolis News, and Frank H. Ehlen, of the Chicago Herald, are assisting Messrs. Driscoll, Woods and Richards, the committee in charge of the contest. Letters and telegrams of inquiry from publishers in every quarter of the United States evidence the interest felt in this, the first typesetting machine contest ever held. Visitors are excluded this week, but commencing Monday next, newspaper men will be shown the machine by their operators and those interested in their manufacture.

The Dalton Gang Surrounded.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Oct. 13.—A deputy marshal came in from the Creek nation last night and reports that Marshal Heck Thoms and the California detective, who were sent here, accompanied by a party of Indians, have surrounded the Dalton gang in the western part of the reservation. The Daltons have sent a note to Marshal Thoms, warning him to go away and let them alone on peril of his life. They say their position is impregnable and they kill any one attempting to capture them.

EVENING BULLETIN.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1891.

"A STEW-PAN made of such 'tin-plate' as the Ohio 'McKinley and Protection' campaign medals are made of would give off salts of lead enough in cooking a stew in it to poison an entire family," says an exchange.

THE St. Louis Republic says: "Missouri pig-lead is a good thing, and so is sheet-iron, but dipping sheet-iron in Missouri lead does not make it 'Ohio steel coated with California tin.' Pull off your Piqua medal, Mr. McKinley. You have been sold and the sell is nasty enough to be very cheap."

COLONEL TOM CORBETT is not particular what office he gets just so it's an office with a comfortable salary attached. He has been "sucking at the public teat" these many years, and the Sinking Fund Commissioners have given him the clerkship at the penitentiary. Why not give some one else a show?

SOME papers have been paving the way to boom Colonel John B. Castleman, Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, for Governor in the not distant future. His officious intermeddling with the executive committees in many counties throughout the State, however, seems to have killed him politically. The Democrats of Kentucky always got along very nicely before they ever heard of Castleman.

Nor long since the Fall River Mills in Massachusetts gave notice that the wages of their employes would be reduced this month. Now comes the news that the order to reduce has been suspended "for the present." The suspension is easily explained. The gubernatorial campaign is in progress and the Republicans don't want to be hampered by any cut in wages. The workmen were promised better pay when the McKinley bill was passed.

A Failure All Around.

"The McKinley tariff, which its author is defending in Ohio," says the New York World, "is a demonstrated and confessed failure in all that was claimed for it."

"(1.) The bill was supported on the plea that it would cause an increase of wages. The workmen know that it has not done this. Wages have been reduced in many more instances than they have been advanced."

"(2.) It was claimed that this law would check imports and prevent the 'flooding of the home market with foreign goods.' Protection organs now boast that our imports have increased the past year—in other words, that the home market has been 'flooded'—$55,000,000 over the year before."

"(3.) It was the theory of the bill that prices would advance under it, so that the manufacturers could afford to pay more to their beloved workmen. 'A cheap coat means a cheap man,' said President Harrison. Let us elevate men by raising prices, said the McKinleyites. Now they are trying to prove that prices have not advanced. If this be so—if the importer can charge no more on account of the increased duties, and the home manufacturer can get no more on account of increased protection, and wages are stationary or lower—is not the McKinley law an all-round failure?"

"Let sensible men answer."

Saving Banks for Girls.

There is a splendid institution in Germany that might be well imitated here. On the birth of a daughter Teutonic parents in moderate circumstances can insure the little one in a certain institute for a sum that will give the child on the completion of her eighteenth year a small capital with which to start in life, so as to enable her to follow a profession or finish her studies, as she shall desire, or if neither be to her taste, the sum will enable her to marry well. Of course the parents pay a fixed annual premium to the company, which invests the stipulated sum in securities, real estate, etc., and it seems to it that the investments either yield a fair interest, which is compounded, or that the real estate increases in value, so that by the time the girl arrives at years of discretion, she may find herself mistress of a snug little fund so that she may be enabled to get on without the assistance of parents, to whom the comparatively light premium scarcely proved a burden.—Sunday Morning Call.

The above article would leave the impression that there was no institution in this country which provides for the little ones in the future. The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, writes what we term children's endowments. The parents pay a certain fixed sum annually and the company guarantees to pay the child a certain amount of cash when it has reached the age the parent may select. The Mutual Life invests the annual payment to the very best advantage. Neither Germany nor any other country has such an institution as the U. S. The Mutual Life is the largest financial institution in the world. Any one wishing information in regard to the above can find me at my office 12 East Third street, where I will cheerfully give them the information. We are also writing the cheapest life insurance that can be found anywhere.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky
Convenes in Annual Session.

The Welcome Address and Response.
State Meeting of the Rebekahs.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, I. O. O. F., convened in annual session shortly after 9 o'clock this morning at Oddfellows' Hall, with Grand Master W. G. Duncan in the chair.

There was a full representation present, the attendance being above the average.

The session was opened with due solemnities, and prayer by the Grand Chaplain, Rev. S. X. Hall.

A call of the roll showed all the officers of the Grand Lodge present except Grand Treasurer Morris and Grand Marshal Reddick. The Grand Treasurer was expected on the 10 o'clock train.

Following this came the address of welcome, which was delivered by Past Grand Thomas A. Davis, of DeKalb Lodge. Mr. Davis said:

Grand Master and Representatives: After a lapse of twelve years you have again honored our city by your presence, and through the partiality of the local committee I have been chosen to extend a cordial greeting.

As it is maternal affection that moves the fond mother to visit her dutiful offspring, so we rejoice that, in future, this Mother Lodge will now and then mingle with her children to see that their houses are well ordered.

We recall with pleasure the occasion of your former visit, and appreciate, let us hope with a due sense of gratitude the benefits that followed it. Your presence then not only inspired many worthy young men to connect themselves with our local lodges, but it laid the foundation-stone for one of the most substantial improvements that our people enjoy. These results are in consonance with the tenets of our order, for wherever Oddfellowship touches it leaves an indelible impress for good.

And while I see here to-day so many of the faces that were familiar twelve years ago, there are vacant places that can not be filled. We miss and mourn our Shaffner, the Wolfords, and Bigger and Rogers, with many lesser lights who have been admitted to the presence of the Grand Master of us all. May God in his mercy reunite us in the Grand Lodge above!

You are gathered to-day not in the metropolis of our Commonwealth; we have no stately edifices, nor teeming factories, nor magnificent bridges such as Louisville is wont to boast but we have the eternal hills upon the one side and a beautiful river upon the other—a combination of rugged landscape and silvery stream that has entranced the wisest traveler.

Nestling between these we have an industrious, devoted and thrifty people, engaged in all the honorable pursuits that bring peace and plenty in their train. Look where you may, and at the head of our enterprises and in trusted places you will find Oddfellows. They preside in our Circuit and County Courts; they head our municipal government, legislative and executive; they are Presidents and Cashiers of banks; they control and direct our manufactures; they own and operate our electric lights and railway; they preside over the daily press; in fact, they are everywhere, and true Oddfellows. You come to us, therefore, not as strangers but as brothers, and we accord you a brother's greeting.

In this fraternal grasp, Grand Master, you have the key that opens unto you and these Representatives the hearts and the homes of the Oddfellows of Maysville: with waving banners and friendly smiles and outstretched arms our citizens greet you; kindred Orders and the Commercial Club have kindly thrown open their Temples and Castle Halls and rooms to receive you; and in the name of our whole people I bid you welcome! Welcome! Thrice Welcome!

Past Grand Master R. G. Elliott, of Lexington, responded. He had prepared no speech, but his remarks were very appropriate until the close, when he said the Grand Lodge and representatives fully appreciated the royal welcome extended them by "this little village." An order was at once issued that Mr. Elliott be shot to-morrow morning at 3 o'clock, and Past Grand Master Wm. H. Cox and Past Grand Thomas A. Davis were appointed by Grand Master Duncan to see that the order was executed. The idea of referring to a city that has electric lights, electric railways, water works and all other modern improvements as "a little village."

Pending the report of the Committee on Credentials, the lodge took a recess. The visiting members of the Encampment were highly entertained last night by the work of the degree team of Pisgah No. 9. Four candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the Royal Purple degree.

The city is handsomely decorated in honor of the visitors. Second, Market and Third streets present a beautiful sight with the profusion of flags, bunting, streamers and festoonings.

One of the largest crowds witnessed in Maysville in a long time will be here Thursday to see the big parade. The Oddfellows from all the surrounding country are coming.

REBEKAH DEGREE LODGES.

The fourth annual convention of the Rebekah Degree Lodges of Kentucky was held yesterday afternoon. There was a larger attendance than at any of the previous meetings. The President, Mrs. F. J. Rogers, of Mt. Sterling, was in the chair.

The annual reports show a membership of 2,000 in the State of this Branch of Oddfellowship, an increase the past year of 200. One new lodge was instituted the past year, making twenty-seven at present in Kentucky.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the choice of the following:

President—Mrs. Nannie H. Ross, of Louisville.
Vice President—Mrs. Talitha Smith, of Louisville.
Secretary—Mrs. A. T. Million, of Richmond.
Treasurer—Mrs. Matilda Hartman, of Henderson.

The following appointments were announced:

Warden—B. B. Wilson, of Lexington.
Conductor—M. E. Toll, of Mt. Sterling.
Inside Guardian—Leslie Hurley, of Richmond.
Outside Guardian—W. H. Graham, of Louisville.
Chaplain—Mrs. Fannie Campbell, of Maysville.

Two amendments to their constitution were recommended. One reduces the per capita from 25 cents to 10 cents per annum, and the other has reference to the representation in the annual convention—one delegate for every twenty-five members and fraction over twenty-five.

There are 130 representatives at the Central Hotel and a number of others at the St. Charles. Hon. M. J. Durham, ex-Controller of the United States Treasury, is among the visitors. Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Underwood, the chief officer of the Patriarchs Militant, will arrive to-night.

Neptune Hall is headquarters for the Patriarchs Militant.

County Court.

The Jailor was instructed to purchase two dozen chairs for the jury rooms, a small table for the grand jury room and a chair for the County Judge's office.

The application of Ellis & Smart for license to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors in the West End was refused. There was a strong protest filed by John Garrison and others living in the vicinity.

L. W. Galbraith qualified as trustee of G. F. Pollitt.

Falsity and Quibbling in Newspaper Denials.

[Gen. H. V. Boyton in the October Century.]

The press makes many mistakes. The wonder is that in the rush of its presenting an epitome of the world's daily doings at each breakfast table it does not make a thousand errors for one. It makes very few deliberately. And many of those statements concerning which loud-mouthed and quibbling denials are so often accepted are true in their essentials.

Three examples will serve to throw light on this branch of the subject. Said a man of national fame who had commanded one of the Union armies, and had been the Governor of his State, and had served with distinction in Congress, in furnishing some sensational but true statements for publication: "This is exact; but if you ever give me as authority I will publicly deny your dispatch."

Said a former dean of the Diplomatic Corps, in presenting a story of deep interest: "If you allow this to be traced to me, I will promptly deny any connection with it over my official signature, and leave you in the lurch."

Said a Senator of many years' service both in and out of Congress, after talking at length for publication: "Yes; write it up, and print it. But be careful. If I don't like it, I will deny the whole of it."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

WELCOME,

—* PATRIARCHS *

And All Ye Oddfellows

In spare moments you will find our Mammoth Rooms (under the Oddfellows' Hall) a very pleasant place to while away a little time.

We want to show you, moreover, what kind of a Clothing establishment our big little city has, anyhow.

As a matter of course, you are not here for the sole purpose of looking at or buying Clothing, but should you want something in our line, from a Collar up to an elegant Top Coat, you will find our ODDFELLOWS' HALL CLOTHING HOUSE the proper place to get it.

The convenience of stepping from your Oddfellows' rendezvous into our rooms, will, we trust, induce you all to come in and look our place over, anyway.

Cordially yours,

SAYS the Evening Leader of Bloomington, Ill.: "Messrs. George Simonds, Sr., and Basil Duke, who have disposed of their interests in the Windsor hotel, have decided to locate in Cincinnati, for which city they will leave the first of next week. Both gentlemen have hundreds of warm friends in the city who sincerely regret that they have decided to locate elsewhere. During their two years' residence in Bloomington they have established records for honesty and generosity and have been at all times courteous, agreeable gentlemen. With the traveling public they are regarded as among the most sociable and jovial landlords in the country and hundreds of drummers will miss them from the Windsor. Wherever Messrs. Simonds and Duke may cast their lot their friends in this city, including the Leader, wish them prosperity."

BROWNING & CO.'S

Buyers having returned from New York, they are now prepared to exhibit to their patrons the largest and best selected stock of Dry Goods ever shown in this city.

DRESS GOODS:

In this department we have the advantage of having made our selection in person from the largest stock in New York City, and are showing many styles in Boucle and Camel's Hair effects that cannot be seen elsewhere. Our Black Goods stock is simply perfect. We show everything that is desirable in Black Dress Goods from 25c. to $1.50 per yard.

HOSIERY:

Our stock of Hosiery is complete. The merits of our Ethiopian Dye Black Hosiery is so well known that it is only necessary for us to say that our line for Ladies, Gents and Children, for Fall, have been received. As usual, our prices on Domestic are the lowest. We mention a few jobs: 5,000 yards Oil Red Figured Calico, worth 7 1-2c., at 5c.; good quality Canton, 5c.

CLOAKS:

Our Cloak Department is now open. Our garments are all made for us to order, and in material, fit and finish are not equaled in the market. You will make a mistake if you buy a Cloak without seeing our stock.

CENSUS COSTS.

Superintendent Porter Makes His Report.

SOME VALUABLE STATISTICS.

He Denies the Assertions of the New York Herald That It Will Take Four or Five Years to Complete the Work. Other Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Superintendent Porter last night made the following statement in reply to published criticisms about the cost of the eleventh census:

The New York Herald of today says: "It will take four or five years to complete the work." I expect to finish it all and have it ready for the printer by the close of 1892.

The Herald says: "I have asked congress to appropriate two or three million dollars more and with that can get the work about half done." My last report to the secretary of the interior, accessible to all newspapers, asks for $1,000,000 to complete all the work, including the inquiry relative to mortgage indebtedness, which was an extra inquiry and not included in the original appropriation for the census. This is all that will be necessary.

The Herald says he, the superintendent of census, "has 3,000 of the small (punching) machines, on which he owes $375,000, and has not paid a cent."

Instead of $375,000, these machines cost $15,000, and the census office does not owe one cent on them.

The Herald says: "The superintendent has 120 of the larger machines, on which he owes a year and a half rent which, at $1,000 a year, would be $180,000, making the total indebtedness of the bureau on these machines $555,000, and neither contract nor vouchers on file in the treasury department to show it."

The total indebtedness of the census office for this purpose, instead of being $555,000, as stated by The Herald, is not one dollar. The vouchers are paid every month. Such a sum is preposterous; if every machine contracted for was used for an entire year at full rental the total cost could only reach $76,000 per year. When machines are not used we do not pay for them. These same machines are being used by the Canadian government and the Austrian government and they are paying substantially the same rent for them as the census office does.

The Herald says that the census of 1880 cost $4,000,000. The appropriations show that the census of 1880, exclusive of printing, binding and engraving, cost $4,833,350; and the printing, binding and engraving $1,018,116, making a total of $5,851,466, as the cost of the census of 1880, including printing, binding and engraving.

The Herald says that the census has "already cost one-third more than the census of 1880." The appropriation thus far for the census exclusive of printing, binding and engraving has been $6,400,000. Of this amount at least $200,000 has been expended for inquiries required by the present census act which were not required by former censuses, and about $300,000 remains unexpended; so, as a matter of fact, the present census, instead of having already cost one-third more than the census of 1880, has cost $5,900,000, or about $1,000,000 more than the census of 1880, or 9.36 cents per capita, as against 9.08 in 1880, or a decrease of .28 cents per capita. As the population during this period has increased about 25 per cent, the cost of the present census on the same basis, exclusive of printing, binding and engraving, should be $6,086,807. Instead of having cost up to the present time one-third more than the cost of 1880, the census of 1890 has cost a trifle less than the total cost of the census of 1880 would have been had the same number of population been enumerated. A continuous progressive enhancement of the per capita cost of successive censuses is to be anticipated, even if the scope of enumeration is in no degree widened by reason of the continually expanding detail into which the traditional classes of statistics will invariably be drawn under the ever growing popular demand for local and minute information.

The increase from 1870 to 1880 was nearly one cent per capita. Allowing a similar increase for the last decade the cost of the present census, exclusive of printing, binding and engraving, and of the additional inquiries required by congress and appropriated for separately should be about $6,700,000, and I expect to complete the census and have it ready for the printer for less than this sum. Any other statement is false and misleading.

The Herald says "the census appropriation has all been spent," which is not true. There is to the credit of the several census funds $385,000, and the accounts of the office are all paid to date. The only bills due are such as are in transit or have not been presented. I have sufficient money to continue all the necessary work until such time as congress may make additional appropriations.

The statement that the superintendent was interested in any way, direct or indirect in these machines had never been denied, shows the venom of this article. It has been denied to a reporter of The Herald, and is again denied and denounced as a malicious libel and falsehood. Such stories could only emanate from the same sources that are willing to scandalize honest, virtuous and hard working women who are compelled to earn a pittance in a government office; women, too, with widowed mothers and families of orphans and other dependent relatives to support; women whose husbands and fathers have given up their lives on the nation's battlefield, for of such are a majority of the census women clerks. And this is what is called attacking the census.

Work in the Pension Office.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—A statement prepared at the pension office shows that during the week ended Oct. 8, 7,190 certificates of all kinds were issued, the average first payment on each amounting to $140.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

JERSEY RIDGE.

Ual Laycock took in the Georgetown fair. Joseph Slack is the proud father of a daughter, weight, eight pounds.

Mrs. James Laytham, of Donerall, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Sallie Laycock, of Russellville, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Slack.

Elder Metz preached at the Lawrence Creek Christian Church Sunday morning.

Walter Marsh visited his sister, Mrs. Phillip Cooper, of Ohio, Saturday and Sunday.

Elder C. S. Lucas preaches at the Christian Church next Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

Misses Jessie Kerr and Etta Chamberlain were the guests of Miss Maggie Sidwell, of Tuckahoe, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downing, of Washington, visited friends and relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. Joe Richardson and Thos. Stephens arrived home Sunday from the St. Louis fair, and they are just full of St. Louis now.

George Downing and sister, Mrs. Campbell, of Campbell County, on their way home from the Georgetown fair, paid a short visit to relatives here.

As the tobacco is about cured and seeding time about over, we would like to see a good rain. The pastures are all dried up, the ponds are getting shallow, the roads are very dusty and no doubt a good rain would be welcomed by every person.

The "young fellows" around here who go to Maysville Sunday evenings to see their girls, going through the toll-gate free on the plea of going to church, are met now with the fact that unless they belong to church in Maysville they have to pay toll. If the boys like their girls well enough, there will evidently be an increase of membership of the Maysville churches or their pocketbooks will be lighter.

GERMANTOWN.

Miss Nannie Erion is visiting at New Richmond, O.

John Erion and wife, of Paris, are visiting his father here.

Willie Jenkins and Charlie Burgess, of Tuckahoe, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Lottie L. Ferrine, of Jersey Ridge, is the welcome guest of Miss Mary Savage.

Rev. Mr. Colledge, the preacher appointed to this circuit for the ensuing year, filled his appointment at the M. E. Church on Sunday, day and night.

Arthur Moneyhon, living on the Bridgeville place, sold his farm to J. A. Walton for $3,200 cash. He has purchased a farm near Berlin and will move to the same.

Elder P. H. Duncan went to have his eyes treated by a specialist at Danville, Ill., consequently his audience were disappointed on Sunday. He has the sympathy of our entire community in his affliction.

Several of our citizens, some with their wives, others with their sweethearts, attended the fair at Georgetown, Ohio, last week. They report a bad show of stock, with a larger crowd of people than we had on any day, and the most perfect order—not a disturbance occurred, nor a drunken man seen on the ground.

ORANGEBOUR.

A. N. True has rented out his farm to Millard Campbell, and is going to move to Dover next week.

Mr. M. F. Marsh and wife, of Maysville, were guests of her uncles, Franklin and Charles Kenan, Sunday.

Rev. J. R. Peoples held services at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday at 11 o'clock and at Mt. Olivet Church in the afternoon.

Edward Roe, son of M. H. Roe, formerly of this place, but now of Middlesborough, is here on a visit, to improve his health, which is very bad.

Kind Words.

Elder H. E. Light, of Mountainville, Lancaster County, Pa., has a good word to say for a patent medicine. We will give it in his own words: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used in my family and can say that it done us good in diarrhoea and cholera morbus. I do not hesitate to recommend it to all suffering from the above diseases." Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,474 hhds., with receipts for the same period of 882 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 130,815 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1890 on our market to this date amount to 91,736 hhds.

Our market during this week has been active and strong for the fine grades of filley leaf, but the other grades of burley have been dull and low. The new crop is safely in the house now and is supposed to be superior quality, and the buying trade are inclined to accumulate only enough old stock to run them to the time when they expect to be able to take hold of new tobacco.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for new burley tobacco:

Trash (dark) or damaged tobacco.....$ 2 00@ 3 00

Colony trash..... 3 00@ 6 00

Common lugs, not colony..... 3 50@ 4 50

Colony lugs..... 6 50@10 00

Common leaf..... 5 00@ 7 50

Medium to good leaf..... 7 50@12 00

Good to fine fillers..... 12 00@22 00

Select wrappery tobacco..... 22 00@33 00

Weekly Review of Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

The offerings at auction for the week were 2,473 hhds., classed as follows: 842 hhds Mason County (Ky.); District; 441 hhds Pendleton County (Ky.); District; 335 hhds Owen County (Ky.); District; 232 hhds Blue Grass (Ky.); District, and 632 hhds Brown County (Ohio) District, against 2,487 hhds the previous week and 2,565 hhds corresponding week last year. Total offerings for year to date 35,406 hhds, against 34,922 hhds same time last year.

Hhds. Receipts for the week..... 980

Receipts same week last year.....1,428

The offerings were large, but a marked falling off in the receipts is noticeable, and they were smaller than for some time past, and by a comparison with the actual sales a reduction in the stock of 750 hhds is shown. The market did not in the main show any material change from previous week. Common trash, lugs and non-descripts were, of course, in large supply, as the stock on hand is composed mainly of these grades, but there was a fairly good demand prevalent, and prices had steadily with a good supply, was in active demand, manufacturers being spirited bidders and paying full prices. Sixteen hogsheads fancy leaf sold from $25 to $30. Colony trash and lugs were in active request and sold at full figures.

Of the 2,473 hhds, 580 sold from $1 to $3.95, 627 from $4 to $5.95, 471 from $6 to $7.95, 235 from $8 to $9.95, 289 from $10 to $14.75, 197 from $15 to $19.75, 79 from $20 to $24.75, 14 from $25 to $29 and 2 at $30.

THOMPSON & McATEE,

Dealers in Buggies and Farm Implements, Maysville.

A FACT!

We made the following proposition to a man who was about to visit Cincinnati and Louisville: If Webster's International Dictionary, with Noyes' No. 19 Stand could be bought for less than we could sell them to him, in either of the above cities, we would sell him one for one dollar less than their (Cincinnati and Louisville) price. He came back and bought our Dictionary and Stand for $13.50, and said it was one dollar and twenty-five cents cheaper than the best houses in the other cities would sell it to him for. "TEACHERS, can you do without one? PARENTS, it is brain food for your children. Keep one where they can partake thereof at any time. PROFESSIONAL PEOPLE, you know its value; now get one while we are making a run on them."

Best Sheep Binding, Plain, with Wire Stand.....$10 75

Best Sheep Binding, Index, with Revolving Stand..... 13 50

We have only a few to sell at these prices. Christmas is coming. Be ye ready; we are. Santa Claus is with us. Keep your eye on us. We will interest you. Respectfully,
